MONROVIA LIBERIA...Friday May 11, 2018... The Liberia Revenue Authority (LRA) and the Liberia Media for Democratic Initiatives (LMDI) will today Friday hold the second in a series of the first ever taxation specific General Knowledge Pop Quizzing Competition for Liberian High Schools to enhance the knowledge of Rural Dwellers on the country's general tax regime.

As part of the recently launched National Tax Education and Enlightenment Road Show the second session of the National General Knowledge Pop Quizzing will happen at UNIFICATION TOWN or SMELL-NO-TASTE near the ROBERTS INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (RIA) or HARBEL FIRESTONE with four schools of Margibi County competing in exhibition matches ahead of the start of the LMDI YEAR THREE National quizzing competition.

Under the LRA special Education sensitive project, SCHOOL TAX EDUCATION PROGRAM (STEP) sponsored by the OPEN SOCIETY INITIATIVE FOR WEST AFRICA (OSIWA) and implemented by the Liberia Media for Democratic Initiatives (LMDI), the quizzing games are meant to enlighten high school students and their parents nationwide on the importance and need to pay taxes for National Development and growth in Liberia.

The first of the set of two academic games were held at Gbarnga recently and featured the ALL GIRLS TEAMS of the N.V. MASSAQUOI and the WILLIAM V.S. TUBMAN GRAY HIGH SCHOOLS in game ONE and the ALL BOYS Teams of Gbarnga the based Catholic ST. MARTIN'S and the Lutheran ST. MARK'S High Schools in Game TWO.

In Game ONE, the GIRLS of N.V. MASSAQUOI went down to the WILLIAM V. S. TUBMAN GRAY HIGH SCHOOL 140 to 410 while in game TWO, the ST. MARK'S LUTHERAN felt to the ST. MARTIN'S CATHOLIC SCHOOL 250 to 345.

The Special tax specific national quizzing games are a part of the recently launched LRA-LMDI Tax Education and Enlightenment Road Show aimed at educating rural dwellers on REAL ESTATE and BUSINESS TAXES, the two main taxes that concern them for now.

Deliberations from all LMDI programs are produced into media contents for weekly broadcast on a partner network of 45 National and Rural Community Electronic Media Outlets (Radio and TV Stations) across Liberia. The same is happening for the LRA/OSIWA SCHOOL TAX EDUCATION PROGRAM (STEP).
